

ACHILLES PACATUS.

Achilles occisum Patroclum deflet: et amicam Briseidem filia multis cum muneribus restitutam accipit. Quapropter Græcis et Agamemnoni conciliatus, bella repetere, et amici eadem ulcisci statuit. Columnis imagines Amicitiae et Mercurii hinc inde adpanguntur. Tabule planitiem Achillis tentorium Græcorumq; classis; inum, Caduceus et ramus oleaginus inter bina cornu-copia's, exornant.

ACHILLES RECONCILED.

Achilles laments the death of Patroclus, & receives back his beloved Briseis with many presents. Wherefore being reconciled to the Greeks & Agamemnon, he resolves to go to sea, & revenge the murder of his friend. On one pillar is the picture of Friendship; on the other, that of Mercury in the middle, Achilles's tent & the Grecian fleet; at the bottom, a Caduceus and an olive branch between two Cornu-copia's.
