

Vansomer pinxit.
Sir Charles Blount Bawn Mountjoy, Knight of the Garter, Lord Deputy of IRELAND, one of the Favourites of Queen Elizabeth, and by King James created Earl of Devonshire. He was one of the Commanders against the Spanish Armada, gained the Battle of Kingsale in 1602, and drove the Spaniards out of Ireland. See a very particular account of his person and Character in Morison's Travels.
From the Original by Vansomer in the possession of the Earl of Dartmouth.
P. H. Green sculpsit. hinc Regia fuit.
Published Oct. 2. 1775 by John Boydell Engraver in Chancery Lane.

