

VERA EFFIG: REVERENDISS: VIRI D. ALEX: HENDERSONI
SCOTO-BRITANNI.

If Thou wouldst know where all the Treasures be
Of Nature, Learning, Grace, and Piety
Look on This Son of Wisdom, who made Peace
And Truth each others kiss, Thus Britains face
(Whose Tear's are wypt away) doth Shine more clear
Her Glory growes, while Rome doth Shrink for feare.
Sold by Tho: Banckes in black friers on the staires. W Marshall sculpsit.

cm
7
6
5
4
3
2
© Herzog Anton Ulrich-Museum Braunschweig

