

To Marrit, Ibuthnot Esq. COMMANDER of His Majestys Ships of War Oxford, at the REDUCTION of the Havannah, in the Year 1762.
This Perspective View of Landing the English Troops, & their Ships for the Army, from the Harbour of Havannah, in the Evening, the Signal making Signals to the Commander, with the Dragon Boat, & the Barge, brings with them Roads to the fort, for the Landing of them, is most handsomely INSCRIBED
BY ONE of his Business and Most Dearly Humble Servt. — P. O. K. • Ridge

