

Engraved by James A. Kneller.

Prince. — Richard of York, how flows our loving brother.
York. — Nothing deadlier brother, nor I cannot call you more.
Prince. — My brother, to our griefs we do it give.

SHAKSPEARE.
King Richard the Third
ACT III SCENE I.

Richard III. is seen in the background, standing on the platform, with the sword hanging on the wall.

How late he died, that might have kept that title.
Mark by his death hath lost much dignity.
We have seen our cousin, noble lord of York.

Engraved by Robert Dine.

Printed by J. Smith, in the Strand.
