You must have died, could ever get out breath:
But no man could see, then I will help her
With good my hand, forsooth.

SHAKESPEARE.
The Merchant of Venice.
ACT V. SCENE III.

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE, BY JOHN H. BURNETT, at the Shakespeare Gallery, Pall Mall, N. W. 1796.

The merchant, upon his life is set,
You'll see it, if you had it, then you see
With only your hand, that I have the merchant's
